Woman's Club Honors Presidents and District Officers At Luncheon Wednesday

Reciprocity day was observed by Torrance Woman's Club at the luncheon Wednesday in their clubhouse, 1422 Engracia avenue, when they entertained presidents from Woman's clubs of San Pedro, Hermosa Beach, Redondo Beach, Gardena, Keystone and Montebello. Other honored

Mrs. Will Lee Austin, Los Angeles district president; Mrs. Robt. E. Skinner, club director, and Mrs. Holmes, district press chairman.

Mrs. Johnson, president, welcomed the guests and introduced six new members, namely Mesdames Edmond Morgan, Ralph Hatton, George Mitchell, Margaret Fordyce, Ruth Haggard and Earl Miles.

Luncheon was served at tables attractively arranged. Huge yellow chrysanthemums with black cardboard eyes, noses, mouths and topped with quaker hats were most effective. Covers were placed for 75. P. F. Jones of Reynolds Wholesale Jewelry Company was presented by Mrs. Johnson and gave a colorful talk in which he related the changes in table tools since man first began to use sharp shells to cut his food. Mr. Jones passed one of these shells around the tables for the ladies to examine. He stated that at the present time one-third of the inhabitants of the world use knives, forks and spoons, one-third use chop sticks and one-third still use their fingers. The first known silver appeared in 1684 but as late as the Revolutionary days some army men were severely criticised for spreading bread with their fingers. For 100 years knives never changed. In the last few years the viand or grill knife has become quite popular.

Mrs. Will Lee Austin, Los Angeles district president, spoke at the afternoon meeting. She chose as her subject, "Is Club Work Worth While?" and gave the club many examples of the real values to be derived from club work. Women organized, she stated, "will pave the way to world peace."

Mrs. Jourdane, of Hermosa Beach, sang a group of three numbers. Mrs. Nylund, of Hermosa Beach, played the piano accompaniment.
